SECRETARY OF STATE
STATE OF IDAHO

Hy Kloc is currently in his second term as the Idaho State Representative from District 16, Seat B. Former Chairman of the Board of Directors for the Greater Boise Auditorium District. This elected Board over sees the operation of the Boise Convention Centre, which is currently in the process building the long awaited Convention Centre expansion. Hy retired in 2010 as Associate General Manager for Development from Boise State Public Radio. While there, Hy was named Public Radio's Development Director of the year in 2007. Always one to take on new challenges, Hy served as Chairman of the Boise Complete Count Committee working with a community Board of over 35 members on the 2010 US Census. He has also served as President of the Board of the Idaho Humane Society and as Executive Director of the Gene Harris Jazz Festival. Hy was awarded United States Patent #4,137,815 for a musical instrument he designed he called the Gato Drum, and which is in the collection of musical instruments in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, in New York City. Hy and his wife Joan Wallace, and their dogs, have lived in the Collister neighborhood since moving to Boise in 2001. Born in Germany, Hy grew up in New York City and has lived in Chicago, Detroit, points in between and finally Boise!
