The Coeur d'Alene Tribe hosts an annual reception and dinner for legislators and officials during the legislative session. All legislators and their spouses are invited, along with agency department heads. In 2018 the event was held at the Zion's Bank building on February 8th and was well attended, with about 160 total attendees for dinner including legislators and officials, their spouses, tribal leaders and staff. Some guests left prior to dinner and some arrived later, with substantial inflow and outflow, especially during social hour. About half of legislators rsvp'd and most attended. While it is nearly impossible to determine precise attendance with large events such as this which do not have reserved seating, to the best of our knowledge the following officials attended some or all of the event.
